Peter –

In our telephone conversation on November 22, you acknowledged that documents covered by the Court's decision are in the possession, custody or control of Sitrick & Company. In an effort to accommodate Mr. Sitrick, we suggested that the production of such documents (together with a privilege log identifying any documents claimed to be privileged) and an affidavit from Mr. Sitrick providing the information described in the Court's order of November 22, 2103 might suffice to resolve the matter. We remain open to considering this form of resolution.

If you do not wish to pursue such a resolution, we will, of course, oppose any motion for a stay and we will have no alternative but to seek an order requiring Mr. Sitrick to show cause why he should not be held in contempt for his failure to comply with the Court's order.

Howard,

While we appreciate your effort to accommodate Mr. Sitrick's schedule, we believe that the Court's Order should be challenged as contrary to law and unsound precedent. Accordingly, we will file in the next day or so a notice of appeal and a motion before Judge Ramos requesting a stay of the November 22nd Order during the pendency of Mr. Sitrick's appeal.

Peter
